

Publication of Notice

According to Oregon law, when an election officer receives a ballot title for a measure, they shall publish a notice of receipt of the ballot title in the next available edition of a newspaper of general circulation in the district.

The notice information must include that an elector may file a petition for review of the ballot title.

No ballot titles have been received at this time.