

Safe Food

Clatsop County Environmental Health licenses and inspects restaurants, mobile food units, and temporary food establishments. The following pages offer resources for anyone working in food service or interested in learning more about food safety.

Licensing Resources

LICENSE APPLICATION RESTAURANT / BED AND BREAKFAST

Restaurant Bed & Breakfast (B&B Tourist License also required)
 New Construction Remodel
 Change of Ownership Former establishment name: _____

Establishment Name: _____

Sewer system: Private Public

Water system: Private Public Public Water System Name/Number: _____

Owner/Applicant Name: First: _____ Last: _____

Individual Corporation Partnership Other

DBA or C/O: _____

Do you own other establishments licensed by the Health Dept? _____
If yes, Establishment Name(s): _____

Owner Mailing/Billing Address: _____

Owner Cell #: _____

Owner E-mail: _____

Alternate Contact: _____

Food Service Licensing and Plan Reviews

Food service licenses are required to sell food to the public. Clatsop County is a Local Public Health Authority (LPHA) working under the Oregon Health Authority (OHA). We license restaurants, mobile food units, and temporary food establishments in Clatsop County. Licenses are issued for the...

Read More

Food Safety Training

Food Safety Training

Having food service workers trained in food safety is important in preventing foodborne illnesses. We highly recommend any food service establishment to have managers complete food safety manager training. Food safety managers training provides managers with an in-depth understanding of food...

Read More

Restaurant Inspections

Restaurant Inspections

Clatsop County Licensed Facility Inspection Reports We inspect food service establishments to identify and reduce potential health and safety hazards. Restaurant inspections are typically unannounced visits that should occur every 6 months. Restaurant inspections are scored and reports are...

Read More

Report a Health Concern

Report a Health Concern

If you have a public health concern that you would like to inform us about, please fill out the below form and submit.

All reports are reviewed by qualified Clatsop County Public Health Staff.

Read More

Additional Resources

Food Service Training Resources

The following resources can be helpful in enhancing the food safety culture of your food service establishment.

Read More

Food sanitation code and fact sheets

Redirect to Oregon Health Authority food safety resources.

Read More

Recreational Shellfish Biotoxin Closures

Read More